RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS PROGRAMME

Implementation Report for the Financial Year 2010

I – References

The UNIDROIT Research Scholarships Programme is the meeting-point of two UNIDROIT activities: legal co-operation with developing countries and countries in economic transition, and legal research conducted in a Library renowned for its holdings relating to private international law and located at the seat of a pioneering organisation in the field of private law harmonisation.

The Programme was launched in 1993 and since its inception has hosted over 200 researchers (civil servants, academics, judges and practitioners) from over 60 countries.<sup>1</sup> In addition to the considerable advantages accruing to the beneficiaries themselves and to the legal community in their countries of origin, the Programme also has important institutional fall-out in that opens doors for UNIDROIT to new contacts, often at the highest level, both in its member States and in non-member States, thus vastly improving the exchange of information between the Institute and the legal community in these countries and maximising UNIDROIT's opportunities to publicise its activities there.

The implementation of the Programme is supervised by the Scholarships Sub-Committee of the Governing Council. The Sub-Committee is seized, at its annual meeting, of an implementation report prepared by the Secretariat, of the beneficiary scholars' research reports and of a list of applicants for the following year.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> In granting these scholarships, the Secretariat strictly observes the conditions set by individual donors, and adheres to the recommendations formulated by the Scholarships Sub-Committee, according to the following criteria :

- (a) preference to be given to applicants whose subject has a bearing on the Institute's past or present activities (subjects on the current Work Programme, and in general dealing with private law in the broadest sense);
- (b) preference to be given to graduate or post-graduate level applicants;
- (c) to bear in mind the objective of achieving the widest possible geographical distribution as far as the beneficiaries' countries of origin are concerned;
- (d) preference to be given to applicants whose research project is likely to result in the greatest practical application;
- (e) preference to be given to applicants whose linguistic skills will enable them to derive maximum benefit from the Library's bibliographical resources.

II – Funding available in 2010

The Programme was originally conceived as a scheme funded in part by the UNIDROIT general budget and by ad hoc grants from voluntary donors. In consequence, the amounts available for the programme fluctuate each year : after a most encouraging 2006 year (50,950 EUR), the subsequent years saw a substantial fall in resources (20,926 and 26,669 EUR, and 27.688,43 EUR for 2007, 2008 and 2009 respectively). In 2010, the funding accruing to the programme (to be spent over 2010 and 2011) was 29,859,03 EUR. The available funds are used as efficiently as possible, in particular through the allocation of partial grants as an inducement to candidates to secure their own supplementary funding.

The sources of funding of the Programme in 2010 were as follows :

- ❖ UNIDROIT General budget, Chapter XI (10,000 EUR) : 2 full scholarships and 4 partial scholarship (1 to be taken in 2011)
- ❖ Voluntary contributions :*
  - ❖ The Government of the Republic of Korea : 2 full scholarships and 1 partial scholarship (2009 funding); 2 full scholarships (2010 funding – scholarships to be taken in 2011)
  - ❖ The UK Foundation for International Uniform Law : 3 full scholarships (2 with 2009 funding); 2 partial scholarships (1 to be taken in 2011)
  - ❖ The US Foundation for International Uniform Law : a first-time donor to the Programme: 2 scholarships
  - ❖ Personal contribution by the members of the UNIDROIT Governing Council : 1 full scholarship (2009); 1 partial scholarship (2010)
  - ❖ The Government of the People's Republic of China (MOFTEC) : credit balance of the contribution for the two-year period 2004-2005 (not allocated in 2010)

III – Scholars in 2010

The Programme hosted 15 scholars from 11 countries (see the list in Annex II), selected by the Research Scholarships Sub-Committee of the Governing Council or accepted by the Secretary-General pursuant to the Scholarships Regulations. For organisational and logistical reasons, some of the scholars hosted in 2010 benefited from funding allocated in 2009. 2 scholars will be hosted in the first half of 2011 using funds carried over from the 2010 financial year.

The beneficiaries' summary research reports in 2010 bear witness to the benefits accruing from their research opportunity (it should be borne in mind that these reports are of a descriptive, not a scientific nature – the academic fall-out, in the shape of articles, theses, books etc., does not usually become apparent until months or even years after the scholars return to their own country). Moreover, the Secretariat believes it has made promising new contacts to strengthen its co-operation links with universities and research centres, and to have made a concrete contribution to the promotion of UNIDROIT instruments worldwide.

* A detailed report is submitted to each donor concerning their part of the funding, together with the relevant beneficiary scholars' research reports. The table reproduced in Annex I shows the breakdown of contributions paid in during the corresponding financial year.

IV – Promotion of the Research Scholarships Programme

Publicity regarding the Research Programme is circulated each year among member and non member Governments and among a network of potentially interested persons and institutions. Full information on the Programme may be accessed on the UNIDROIT Internet website.

The Secretariat is also actively committed to instituting joint scholarships with national universities or research centres, in line with the objectives of each of these institutions. One possible formula would involve the granting of a UNIDROIT research period in the framework of doctoral study programmes or competitions among young academics, to be funded jointly or else sponsored in full by the associated institution or by a third party of its choice. Several other regional institutions are being canvassed as to openings for co-operation in this connection.

V – Perspectives

The Secretariat recalls that this Programme covers both training and legal co-operation and has proved an efficient means of underpinning the Organisation's harmonisation work; on both these counts, it forms an integral part of the Institute's mission.

The Secretariat is optimistic that the voluntary donors will wish to renew their financial commitment, and that new donors may join them, so as to maintain the scheme's financial potential and enable a satisfactory number of candidates to be presented and accepted into the Programme.
