PROPOSAL FOR A NEW ARTICLE XXVII(2)

(presented by the delegation of Canada)

Article XXVII(2)

Nothing in this Convention and this Protocol limits the ability of a Contracting State, in accordance with its laws and regulations, to restrict or attach conditions:

(a) to the creation of an international interest for reasons of national security, international peace and security, or in order to regulate controlled goods, and

(b) to the exercise of the remedies provided in Chapter III of the Convention and Chapter II of this Protocol, for reasons of national security, international peace and security or where the exercise of such remedies would involve or require the transfer of controlled goods, technology, data or services, or would involve the transfer or assignment of a license, or the grant of a new license.
