THE CONFERENCE,

CONSIDERING that the completion of the Protocol is to be expected to confer significant benefits on the international community as a whole, in particular for developing States; and

TO INVITE States to initiate preliminary work in 2007 on a Protocol on mobile agricultural, construction and mining equipment;

TO INVITE the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT) to use its good offices to facilitate such objectives;

TO INVITE UNIDROIT to give all Member States of UNIDROIT and Member States of the United Nations or relevant specialised Agencies which are not members of UNIDROIT an opportunity to participate in the negotiation and adoption of such Protocols in a cost-effective manner; and

TO INVITE the competent bodies of UNIDROIT to consider favourably the implementation of an expedited procedure for the adoption of such Protocols, and in particular to consider the diplomatic Conference required for their adoption being as short as possible consistently with the need for States to give such Protocol proper consideration.
