

The International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT), based in Rome, is looking for an outstanding lawyer to fill the post of

SECRETARY-GENERAL

In addition to a distinguished career in his or her field (governmental, academic, intergovernmental or other), the ideal candidate has a solid knowledge of comparative private law, commercial and private international law and a vision of future directions of law reform both domestic and global.

Being able to foster excellent working relationships with Member States' Governments and to lead a small team of professionals and technical support staff as well as the ability to work in multicultural environments are prerequisites. Management experience is an asset.

Duration of the appointment: 5 years (renewable).

Salary: Competitive salary in the upper range of comparable international organisations.

Language requirements: English and French fluent; other languages (e.g. Italian) are an asset.

Entry on duty: as soon as possible following appointment by the UNIDROIT Governing Council in May 2018

Applications should be addressed to the President of UNIDROIT (a.mazzoni@unidroit.org) including a CV, list of publications, five letters of reference and a motivation letter setting forth the candidate's vision of his or her role, no later than 18 September 2017.

For more information, visit www.unidroit.org.

Please note that only the candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.